

Andrea Caggese earned his PhD in Economics at the London School of Economics and Political Science in 2002. Currently he is an Associate Professor at Universitat Pompeu Fabra (UPF), an Affiliated Professor at Barcelona School of Economics (BSE), and a Research Associate at the Center for International Economics (CREI). He is also the Coordinator of the Master of Research in Economics, Finance and Management at the Department of Economics and Business at Universitat Pompeu Fabra (UPF). He was Awarded a Resercaixa Grant in 2014, and he has been a Visiting researcher at Boston University in 2015-2016. His work has appeared in the American Economic Journals: Macroeconomics, Journal of Financial Economics, Review of Financial Studies, the Journal of Monetary Economics, the Economic Journal and the Review of Economic Dynamics, among others. His research interests include Macro-Finance, Firm Dynamics, and Entrepreneurship and Innovation.

Selected Publications

- "Cyclical Fluctuations, Financial Shocks, and the Entry of Fast Growing Entrepreneurial Startups", 2020, Forthcoming, The Review of Financial Studies (with Christoph Albert).
- "Financing Constraints, Radical versus Incremental Innovation, and Aggregate productivity", 2019, American Economic Journal: Macroeconomics, Vol 11, April 2019, 275-309.
- "Firing the Wrong Workers: Financing Constraints and Labor Misallocation", (with Vicente Cunat and Daniel Metzger) Journal of Financial Economics, Vol. 133, Issue 3, September 2019, Pages 589-607.
- "Financing Constraints, Firm Dynamics, Export Decisions, and Aggregate Productivity", (with V. Cuñat), Review of Economic Dynamics, 16(1), 177-193, 2013.
- "Entrepreneurial Risk, Investment and Innovation", Journal of Financial Economics, 106(2), 287-307, 2012.