Call for Papers: "New Developments in the Macroeconomics of Labor Markets"

Centre de Recerca en Economia Internacional (CREI), Barcelona
September 18-19, 2015

The Centre de Recerca en Economia Internacional (CREI), the Kiel Institute for the World Economy and the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, as part of the Ensuring Economic and Employment Stability (EES) network, are organizing a conference, which will be held at CREI on September 18-19, 2015.

Paul Beaudry (University of British Columbia), Jordi Gali (CREI and UPF) and Robert Shimer (University of Chicago) have confirmed their participation.

The conference aims to bring together high-quality research that is at the intersection of labor economics and macroeconomics. We invite researchers to submit related empirical and theoretical contributions. Among the areas of interest are:

1. Accounting for slow recoveries
2. Interactions of credit and labor markets
3. Secular stagnation and the labor market

Approximately 10 papers will be selected for presentation and discussants will be assigned.

Please submit a paper or an extended abstract to ees@ifw-kiel.de not later than June 15, 2015. Funding for economy-class travel and hotel accommodations for presenters and discussants will be provided by the conference organizers.
