

Ninth Annual Workshop on Macroeconomics of Global Interdependence (MGI)
Barcelona, April 4-5, 2014
CALL FOR PAPERS

Organisers: Philippe Bacchetta (Université de Lausanne, and CEPR) and Fernando Broner (CREI, UPF, Barcelona GSE, and CEPR)

CEPR and CREI are jointly organising a one and a half day workshop focusing on the macroeconomics of global interdependence. The workshop will take place in Barcelona, Spain, at the campus of Universitat Pompeu Fabra, on April 4 and 5, 2014.

Some topics of special interest are:

- International adjustment dynamics
- Current account imbalances and international capital flows
- Global financial crises
- Open-economy macroeconomic models
- Exchange rates
- International dimensions of monetary and fiscal policy
- Sovereign risk

This is the ninth annual workshop of the CEPR Working Group on Macroeconomics of Global Interdependence (MGI). MGI aims to encourage academic research on macroeconomic aspects of global integration (broadly defined). Further information on MGI can be found at www.cepr.org/mgi.

If you would like to submit a paper proposal, please, upload a provisional draft with your reply form by visiting www.cepr.org/YourProfile/Meetings. Please, also indicate whether you wish to present a paper and/or act as a discussant and your funding requirements. If you do not have a CEPR profile and for any other issue, please, write to Amanda Vincent-Rous, Events team at avincentrous@cepr.org (+44 20 7183 8808)

The deadline for replies is 18:00 GMT on Friday, November 22, 2013. We cannot accept submissions received after this date. The organising committee will notify prospective participants by December 16, 2013 of their decision.

The workshop will be hosted by CREI and is funded by the European Research Council under the European Union's Seventh Framework Programme (FP7/2007-2013)/ERC grant agreement no. 263846.

We hope to see you in April!

Philippe Bacchetta and Fernando Broner