

The XIII Workshop in International Economics and Finance, organized by Universidad Torcuato Di Tella, Universidad del Pacífico, Centre de Recerca en Economia Internacional (CREI) and the World Bank LAC Chief Economist Office, will take place in Lima on May 16-18, 2011.

The deadline for submitting papers is February 15, 2011. Papers must be submitted by email to utdtworkshop@utdt.edu in PDF format. The program will be posted in the workshop's web site, www.utdt.edu/ief-workshop, by March 15, 2011.

The workshop is a unique event that brings together top researchers and policy makers from the North and the South to discuss recent theoretical and empirical advances in International Economics and Finance. The goal of these meetings is to gain a better understanding of the macroeconomic problems faced by Latin American countries and to encourage research on the subject. The program's format will be similar to that of our past meetings. We will discuss approximately ten academic papers in closed seminar style sessions and there will be some sessions of a less technical nature open to a broader audience.

We welcome papers on International Economics, Macroeconomics and Finance that address issues of relevance for the economies of Latin America. Some topics of special interest are:

- Capital flows and their effects on emerging economies
- Macroeconomic management of terms of trade shocks
- Monetary policy in emerging economies
- Sovereign risk and sovereign funds
- Credit markets and economic activity

The papers to be presented in the academic sessions will be selected by a program committee formed by:
