

Biographical sketch

Geert Mesters is Assistant Professor of Economics at UPF, an Associate Researcher at Centre de Recerca en Economia Internacional (CREI), and an Affiliated Professor at the Barcelona School of Economics (BSE). He received two PhD degrees in 2015 - one in economics and one in criminology - from the Tinbergen Institute and VU Amsterdam. His research takes place on the intersection between macroeconomics and econometrics. He has extensively published in both fields and his contributions have appeared in, among others, the Quarterly Journal of Economics, the Review of Economics and Statistics, the Journal of Monetary Economics and the Journal of Econometrics. He has received several leading grants in both Spain and The Netherlands (Juan de la Cierva, Ramón y Cajal, and the VENI research grant, respectively) and was awarded a starting grant from the European Research Council (ERC) for his project on Macroeconomic Policy Evaluation.
